

I value obtaining Internet service from an independent ISP such as Sonic.net, and believe that BellSouth's request would badly affect consumers with regards to my available choice of Internet Service for broadband.